The investigation into this matter is ongoing, and this notice will be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, Equity Bank does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Maine law, the applicability of the Maine data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On or about November 2, 2021, Equity Bank experienced a security event within their systems after a third party obtained access to a limited amount of personal information. Equity Bank immediately took steps to resolve the disruption, eliminate the third party's access, restore system usage, and investigate the nature and scope of the incident. On December 10, 2021, Equity Bank determined the individuals whose information may have been impacted by this event.

The information that could have been subject to unauthorized access includes name, address, and financial account number. Equity Bank has no evidence of any actual or attempted misuse of this information.

Notice to Maine Residents

Starting on December 30, 2021, Equity Bank is providing written notice of this incident to all affected individuals, which includes twenty-two (22) Maine residents. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering the event, Equity Bank moved quickly to investigate and respond to the incident, assess the security of Equity Bank systems, and notify potentially affected individuals. Equity Bank is also working to implement additional safeguards and training to its employees. Equity Bank is providing access to credit monitoring services for twelve (12) months, through Kroll, to individuals whose personal information was potentially affected by this incident, at no cost to these individuals.

Additionally, Equity Bank is providing impacted individuals with guidance on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud, including advising individuals to report any suspected incidents of identity theft or fraud to their credit card company and/or bank. Equity Bank is providing individuals with information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one's credit file, information on protecting against tax fraud, the contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their state Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud.

Dear <<first_name>> <<middle_name>> <<last_name>> <<suffix>>:

Thank you for choosing Equity Bank. We're writing to give you an update on an incident that may have affected some of your information.

On November 2, 2021, we experienced a security incident within our systems, after a third party obtained a limited amount of personal information for a portion of our customers. Core banking data, including account-level information and transaction data, was not involved. We immediately took steps to resolve the disruption, eliminate the third-party's access, restore system usage, and investigate the incident. Based on this investigation, the third party may have gained access to this personal information on November 1, 2021.

On December 10, 2021 we confirmed that certain files stored on our network within our environment that contain elements of your information like name, address, <<b2b_text_1(data elements)>> may have been impacted by this event. We have no evidence that any of this information has been subject to attempted misuse. We verified that this was a singular incident, and our platform is safe and secure.

We understand these types of incidents are unfortunately becoming common among various industries, requiring vigilance on all our parts to protect against the potential of ID theft and fraud. However, when customer data is potentially affected, we strive to be straightforward and transparent. We strive to prioritize communication with all of our customers, so that you can take steps to review your information online, including review of recent account statements and use of free credit reporting tools. You may also review the information contained in the enclosed "Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information."

To make sure you feel secure and confident we would like to give you an added precaution. We would like to offer you free access to identity monitoring services for 12 months at no cost to you, through Kroll. You'll find information on how to activate these services in the enclosed "Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information." We're not able to register customers automatically, but we encourage you to review the steps attached to sign up.

We are committed to the security of your personal information. Safety and security when banking with Equity Bank is of prime importance to us. The nature of threats quickly evolves, and we are continually identifying and resolving vulnerabilities when they appear. We have a team of professionals that assess financial industry best practices and standards and have recently made some adjustments to our security environment to make sure we are one step ahead of these evolving threats, and we'll continue to develop and implement additional cybersecurity measures to protect against incidents from occurring.

We thank you for your business and for your patience. If you have any additional questions, please call us at (855) 618-3211, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Central Time (excluding some U.S. holidays) or reach out to your local banker. Thank you once again for choosing Equity Bank.

Sincerely,

Monitor Your Accounts

You're entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Each consumer has the right to place an initial or extended "fraud alert" on his or her credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business will be required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which lasts seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a "credit freeze" on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer's express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.).
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

You may learn more about identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps you can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and your state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

For District of Columbia residents, the District of Columbia Attorney General may be contacted at: 400 6th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20001; 202-727-3400; and oag@dc.gov.

For New Mexico residents, you have rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, such as the right to be told if information in your credit file has been used against you, the right to know what is in your credit file, the right to ask for your credit score, and the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. Further, pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the consumer reporting bureaus must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information; access to your file is limited; you must give your consent for credit reports to be provided to employers; you may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report; and you may seek damages from violator. You may have additional rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act not summarized here. Identity theft victims and active-duty military personnel have specific additional rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act. We encourage you to review your rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act by visiting www.consumerfinance.gov/f/201504_cfpb_summary_your-rights-under-fcra.pdf, or by writing Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

For New York residents, the New York Attorney General may be contacted at: Office of the Attorney General, The Capitol, Albany, NY 12224-0341; 1-800-771-7755; or <https://ag.ny.gov/>.

For North Carolina residents, the North Carolina Attorney General may be contacted at: 9001 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-9001; 1-877-566-7226 or 1-919-716-6000; and www.ncdoj.gov.

For Rhode Island residents, the Rhode Island Attorney General may be reached at: 150 South Main Street, Providence, RI 02903; www.riag.ri.gov; and 1-401-274-4400. Under Rhode Island law, you have the right to obtain any police report filed in regard to this incident. There are 4 Rhode Island residents impacted by this incident.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF YOUR IDENTITY MONITORING SERVICES

You have been provided with access to the following services from Kroll:

Single Bureau Credit Monitoring

You will receive alerts when there are changes to your credit data—for instance, when a new line of credit is applied for in your name. If you do not recognize the activity, you'll have the option to call a Kroll fraud specialist, who will be able to help you determine if it is an indicator of identity theft.

Fraud Consultation

You have unlimited access to consultation with a Kroll fraud specialist. Support includes showing you the most effective ways to protect your identity, explaining your rights and protections under the law, assistance with fraud alerts, and interpreting how personal information is accessed and used, including investigating suspicious activity that could be tied to an identity theft event.

Identity Theft Restoration

If you become a victim of identity theft, an experienced Kroll licensed investigator will work on your behalf to resolve related issues. You will have access to a dedicated investigator who understands your issues and can do most of the work for you. Your investigator will be able to dig deep to uncover the scope of the identity theft, and then work to resolve it.

Kroll's activation website is only compatible with the current version or one version earlier of Chrome, Firefox, Safari and Edge.

To receive credit services, you must be over the age of 18 and have established credit in the U.S., have a Social Security number in your name, and have a U.S. residential address associated with your credit file.
